Welcome to Thomas Library

Thomas Library is here for you. As a member of the Wit enberg Community you have available to you an enormous number of resources both print and electronic. We provide access to almost 200 online databases; more than 50,000 print and electronic journals; thousands of videos, CDs, and DVDs; and over 450,000 print and electronic books. Thomas Library has over 50 computers and wireless internet access is available throughout the building. Our membership in OhioLINK makes millions of books and other materials accessible to you. The librarians and staf are here to help you navigate this immense amount of informat on.

To find books on your topic, the best place to start is EZRA, the online catalog. Located on the library website, click on EZRA in the grey box. EZRA contains records for all the books, CDs, videos, periodicals, and other items owned by Thomas Library. Your best bet is to start out with a keyword search on your topic. Thomas Library has many study areas, from comfy couches to study carrels, quiet study spaces to group study rooms. The Library Lab is a computer lab located behind the reference collection and is available for use unless a class is taking place in that space. Thomas Library has wireless internet access throughout.
